INTRODUCTORY NOTE

THE PURPOSE of printing this little booklet and the uses to which it may be applied are readily apparent. It is hoped that it will find a cordial reception at the hands of the membership of the Society of Colonial Wars.

IT WILL COMPARE favorably, it is believed, with the similar and annual booklets of the California Club, Jonathan Club, Los Angeles Athletic Club and other clubs of this city.

IT CAN BE CARRIED in the pocket or kept at a convenient place upon the desk, thus always at hand to give you the names and addresses of the membership of the Society and other information which you may desire to ascertain.

THE IDEA took form in the mind of your Governor soon after his election to that office and was duly presented to certain members of the Society who have subscribed to a fund to make this publication possible. As usual, it is a few who bear the burden, but the loyalty and enthusiasm of the subscribers are very gratifying.

IN DUE COURSE, Mr. Pierson Worrall Banning was chosen as editor of the booklet, and the compilation, arrangement and matter included should be credited to him. He has certainly handled it in a splendid manner.

ORRA EUGENE MONNETTE.

"Had it not been for America, there had been no such thing as freedom left throughout the whole universe."

—Thomas Paine.

WHY

THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS emphasizes an honorable pride in ancestry. It does not cater to a false or foolish aristocracy. The early Colonists whose records and achievements are preserved by it were the founders and makers of the American Commonwealth. It is worth while to know who they were and what they did. It is a justifiable honor and proper distinction to establish a descent and lineage from them. Numbered as they were among the genuine Cavaliers, nobler men of a fortunate race, their descendants have received through and from them a priceless heritage, in being born upon a favored continent and under a patriotic flag. These descendants are protected by a Government founded, established and guaranteed by their Colonial ancestors. Their vigor of manhood, purity of character, courage of convictions and high-minded purposes were molded and transformed into the foundations of the American Republic.

BY-LAWS
Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California

Preamble

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California has been organized for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of those events and of the men who, in military, naval and civil positions of high trust and responsibility, by their acts and counsel assisted in the establishment, defense and preservation of the American Colonies, and who were the founders of this Nation; to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics and records; to provide suitable commemorations or memorials relating to the American Colonial period; and to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and in the community, respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

We acknowledge the supremacy of the General Society in all matters which have been and which shall be delegated to it, and we pledge ourselves to observe and maintain all laws, rules and regulations for the government and control of the United States Societies, which shall be lawfully prescribed by the General Society.

Now, for the better government of this Society and the achievement of the ends desired, we have adopted the following Code of By-Laws:

ARTICLE I

Name

THIS CORPORATION shall be known by the name and title of
"Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California."

ARTICLE II

Membership

ANY MALE PERSON above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in this Society, who is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor:

1. Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or a privateersman, under authority of the Colonies which afterwards formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the Battle of Lexington, April 19th, 1775; or,

2. Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates mentioned, either as

a. Director General, Vice-Director-General, or member of the Council or Legislative body in the Colony of New Netherland;

b. Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy-Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council or Legislative body in the Colonies of New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

c. Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy-Governor, or member of the Council, or of the Legislative body in Maryland and the Carolinas;

d. Governor, Deputy-Governor, Governor's Assistant, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or members of the Council, body of assistants, or Legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

ARTICLE III

Directors

THE DIRECTORS shall otherwise be designated as the Council. They shall be divided into two classes and hold their offices for the periods as herein provided.

Class A shall be composed of ten members who shall be elected annually.

Class B shall be composed of nine members who shall be designated as Gentlemen of the Council, and they shall be elected and hold their office for the periods as follows, to-wit:

At the Annual Meeting, otherwise designated the General Court, on the twenty-first day of December, 1909, three Gentlemen shall be elected for two years and three Gentlemen shall be elected for three years, and after the expiration of said terms, their successors shall be elected for three years.

The Directors, or Council, as above classified and designated, shall be elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting, at which cumulative voting shall be allowed and a plurality vote shall elect.

Said Directors shall hold their respective offices until their successors shall be chosen.

Vacancies among the Directors, or the Officers or Committees hereinafter designated, shall be filled for the residue of the current year at any meeting of the Directors called for that purpose;

PROVIDED: That in case there shall be a vacancy in the office of President, the First Vice-President, and in the event of his inability to act, the Second Vice-President shall thereupon succeed to said office of President.

The Directors may provide by Resolution for regular meetings, but any meeting may be convened at the call of the President or Secretary, or upon the written request of three Directors.

Five shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

They shall have control and general management of the affairs and funds of the Society, and they shall appoint all standing and such Special Committees as to them may seem proper, composed wholly or in part of members of the Society outside their own number.

For cause, they may suspend any officer, and their action in this behalf must be reported, in writing, to the Society for approval or reverse, within thirty days thereafter.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY shall be President, otherwise designated as Governor; First Vice-President, otherwise designated as Deputy-Governor; Second Vice-President, otherwise designated as Lieutenant Governor; Secretary; Treasurer; Registrar; Chancellor; Historian; Surgeon and Chaplain, who shall be elected annually by the Directors from Class A of their number.

ARTICLE V.

Standing Committees

THE STANDING COMMITTEES shall be Committee on Membership consisting of five members; Committee on Historical Documents consisting of three members; Committee on Entertainment consisting of five members; Committee on the Library consisting of one member.

ARTICLE VI

Delegates to the General Society

THE DELEGATES to the General Society of the Colonial Wars shall be elected at an Annual Meeting of this Society, and they shall hold their office for three years.

The next election of Delegates shall be at the first Annual Meeting immediately following the next General Assembly of the General Society, and succeeding elections shall be had every three years thereafter.

The Deputy-Governor-General from this Society shall be elected as provided by Article IV of the Constitution of the General Society.

ARTICLE VII

Committee on Membership

THREE MEMBERS shall constitute a quorum of the Committee on Membership and a negative vote of one member shall cause an adverse report to the Council upon the application of any candidate.

The proceedings of the Committee shall be secret and confidential. It shall have power to elect from its members a Chairman and Secretary, and to establish regulations for its government not inconsistent with the by-laws of the Society.

Any member failing to attend three successive meetings without sufficient excuse, shall be dropped from the Committee, and the Council shall fill the vacancy caused thereby.

ARTICLE VIII

Committee on Historical Documents

THE COMMITTEE ON HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS, in connection with the Historian, who shall be ex-officio Chairman, may prepare papers on matters of interest to the Society and submit them to the Council.

No papers shall be printed without the order of the Council.

It shall use all possible efforts to secure original documents, muster rolls and other papers or articles connected with the Colonial history of the country.

It shall be empowered to correspond in the name of the Society with individuals, societies and governments, in the course of its investigations. It shall keep a record of its transactions.

ARTICLE IX

Committee on Entertainment

THE COMMITTEE ON ENTERTAINMENT shall be the Steward of the Society's banquets, but must present to the Governor a list of all speakers and invited guests for his approval. It shall have power to select places for banquets, and to issue tickets for the same, but it shall assume no expense without the approval of the Council.

It shall have charge of the annual election, and shall install the officers elected.

ARTICLE X

Committee on the Library

THE COMMITTEE ON THE LIBRARY shall have charge of the properties of this Corporation, except such as properly belong to the custody of the Secretary, Registrar and Treasurer, and, subject to the approval of the Directors, he may establish such regulations as may be necessary for the preservation and growth of the library and most convenient use thereof.

ARTICLE XI

Election of Members

EVERY APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP shall be made in duplicate subscribed by the applicant under oath or affirmation, upon blanks prescribed by the Council, and approved by two members of the Society over their signatures.

Applications shall be accompanied by proofs of eligibility, and shall be referred to the Committee on Membership, who shall carefully investigate the same and report their recommendation thereon to the Council.

Members may be elected at any meeting of the Directors, but the presence of one negative vote shall cause a postponement of the election for one month, after which a final ballot shall be had and the candidate shall be rejected if there shall be found one negative vote for every five ballots cast.

A rejected candidate shall not be permitted to apply for membership until the lapse of one year, except by the unanimous consent of the Committee on Membership and the Council.

Payment of the membership fee and dues for the current year and the fees of the General Society shall accompany the application.

In case the candidate shall be rejected, the amount paid by him shall be returned.

Membership shall be hereditary for all male descendants of the present members of this Society, and of those who may hereafter be elected, up to the limit that the Society may hereinafter determine upon, subject to the vote of the Council, and the moral qualifications of the person who may be an heir at any time to such membership.

Supplemental papers shall be upon the prescribed blanks in duplicate and verified by the oath or affirmation of the member.

ARTICLE XII

Declaration

EVERY APPLICANT FOR MEMBERSHIP shall declare upon honor that he will use his best efforts to promote the purposes of the Society, and will observe the Constitution and By-Laws of the same, and if a citizen of the United States, he shall declare that he will support the Constitution of the United States. Such declaration shall be in writing and subscribed by the applicant.

ARTICLE XIII

Resignation, Disqualification and Expulsion

NO RESIGNATION of any member shall become effective unless consented to by the Council.

No person who has become enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership after his proofs of eligibility shall have been found to be defective.

After six months notice to such person to substantiate his claim and upon his failure satisfactorily so to do, the Council must direct the Secretary to erase his name from the membership roll.

The said person shall have the right to appeal to the Society at its next Court, or to the General Court. If the said appeal be sustained by a two-thirds vote of the members present at such Court, his name shall be restored to said membership roll.

PROVIDED: That no applicant or member shall be permanently enrolled as a member of this Society whose proofs shall be found to be defective or shall be rejected by the General Society.

Any member for conduct inconsistent with the character of a gentleman and man of honor, or for serious disloyalty to this Society, or for other grave cause, may be suspended or expelled from the Society. But no member shall be suspended or expelled unless written charges are presented against him, except as provided in Article XXV.

The Council, after hearing such charges and giving him an opportunity to reply to them, may act by a two-thirds vote, and its action shall be final. The insignium of said member shall thereupon be returned to the Treasurer of the Society, and his rights therein shall be extinguished or suspended.

The Treasurer shall refund to said member the amount paid for said insignium.

ARTICLE XIV

Purpose

AT EVERY MEETING of the Council the purpose and general welfare of the Society shall be considered, and measures taken to promote and secure them. Neither party political questions of the day, nor existing controversial religious subjects shall be discussed or considered in the Council, or at any meeting of this Society, or of any of its Committees.

ARTICLE XV

Commemorations

THE SOCIETY shall celebrate yearly some event in the Colonial history, as a festival day, and its members shall dine together at least once in each year.

ARTICLE XVI

Local Secretaries

WHEN TEN OR MORE MEMBERS of this Society shall be resident in a city or town of the State of California, one of the number may be appointed Local Secretary by the Council, to hold office for one year, or until his successor be duly appointed.

Subject to the approval of the Council, a Local Secretary may in conjunction with the members locally resident, organize a Chapter of this Society; arrange local commemorations of men and events of Colonial History; hold annual and special meetings and elect such local officers as may be desired; provided, however, that all reports and recommendations from said Local Chapter to this Society shall be made through said Local Secretary.

ARTICLE XVII

Flag

THE FLAG of this Society shall be Argent, a Cross of Saint George gules; an escutcheon or, bordered sable, charged with a grizzle bear, passant, proper; under the motto "Eureka."

ARTICLE XVIII

Insignia and Diploma

THE INSIGNIA AND DIPLOMA OF MEMBERSHIP shall be those of the General Society; provided, however, that members may receive a certificate of membership in this Society, signed by the Governor, Registrar and Secretary, in such form as may be prescribed by the Council.

ARTICLE XIX

Seal

THE GREAT SEAL of the Society shall be: Within a beaded amulet a title scroll; Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California 1542-1775 surrounding a group of Colonial weapons; over all a shield Quarterly, I and IV; Gules a tower triple-towered or (Castile). II and III: Argent a lion rampant, gules crowned or (Leon). Upon a chief of the last a grizzle bear, passant proper (California).

ARTICLE XX

Courts or Meetings

THE ANNUAL MEETING or General Court of the Society shall be held on "Forefathers' Day," the twenty-first day of December.

Should said date fall on a Sunday, then the General Court shall be held on the following Monday.

Special Meetings or Courts may be called by the Governor at such times as in his opinion the interests of the Society may demand, and they must be called by the Secretary, by direction of the Council, or upon the written request of nine members.

The notice for the holding of the General Court shall be given by written or printed notices mailed one week prior thereto by the Secretary, and addressed to the last known residence or place of business of the member.

All notices of Special Courts shall be sent out at least three days before the date of such Courts.

Ten members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and in all cases, except the amendments of the By-Laws, a majority of those present, or represented by proxy, shall constitute a vote.

ARTICLE XXI

Proxies and Cumulative Voting

ANY MEMBER who is unable to be present at a General or Special Court of this Society may, nevertheless, have his vote counted, having first duly authorized, in writing, a member to act as his proxy thereat.

In all elections cumulative voting shall be lawful.

ARTICLE XXII

Ancestral Record

EVERY MEMBER who shall present to the Registrar, duly verified before an officer authorized by law to administer an oath, a statement in writing, containing the particulars of his marriage, and the names and dates of the birth of his children, and such facts concerning his life and ancestry, and the ancestry of his wife, as he may desire to have perpetuated, shall be entitled to have the same filed among the archives, and spread at large upon the records of the Registrar of this Society.

ARTICLE XXIII

Addresses of Members

IT SHALL BE THE DUTY of every member to inform the Secretary by written communication, of his place of residence, and of any change thereof, and of his postoffice address.

Service of any notice under the By-Laws on any member, by mail, shall be sufficient service of notice.

ARTICLE XXIV

Decease of Members

UPON THE DEATH of any member, notice thereof, and of the time and place of the funeral, shall be sent by the Secretary to every member, and thereupon it shall become the duty of members, if practicable, to attend the obsequies.

Upon the information of the decease of a member, the Governor shall appoint from the Society four members as a Committee to represent the Society at the funeral.

Any member who becomes aware of the death of a fellow member shall immediately notify the Secretary of the fact.

ARTICLE XXV

Fees and Dues

THE MEMBERSHIP FEE shall be ten dollars and the fees of the General Society, which, with the first year's dues, must be paid before action can be had upon any application for membership.

The annual dues shall be five dollars, payable between the first days of January and March of each year, after which later date members who have not paid will be debarred from voting at the meetings of the Society; provided, that any member elected during the last three months of the year shall not be required to pay the annual dues until the next ensuing year. The payment at any one time of fifty dollars, in addition to the membership fee, shall constitute life membership, such payments being in lieu of all annual dues.

When the number of life members shall reach fifty, the fee for life membership thereafter shall be one hundred dollars.

All applicants for membership who have been admitted to membership in any other Society of the Colonial Wars shall be exempt from payment of the membership fee herein; provided, the amount paid for initiation or membership fee in their former Society shall equal the membership fee required by this Society. In case the membership or initiation fee already paid has been less than that required by this Society, the difference shall be paid with the dues for the current year, and the fees of the General Society.

Any of the Charter members of this Society who, on the 30th day of November, 1895, was a member of another State Society, and who shall desire to retain his older membership, is hereby declared to be a member of this Society, with power to vote at any of its meetings and eligible to any of its offices, and he shall be exempt from the payment of the annual dues so long as he shall retain his membership in his former Society, and pay annual dues therein.

Any member who may contribute two hundred and fifty dollars to the "Permanent Fund" of the Society, shall be exempt from payment of all annual dues, and this exemption shall extend in perpetuity to his lineal successors in membership from the same propositus, one at a time, who shall be selected for such exemption by the Society, said perpetual membership to be transmitted by the holder subject to the approval of the Council.

The Council shall have the power to drop from the roll the name of any member who shall be at least two years in arrears for dues, and shall fail on proper notice to pay the same within sixty days; and on being dropped his membership shall cease, but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Council upon his written application and the payment of all arrears to the date of his restoration.

ARTICLE XXVI

Permanent Fund

THERE SHALL BE A "PERMANENT FUND," to be derived from all Life Membership fees and contributions, to remain forever for the use of the Society, the income only of which shall be expended.

ARTICLE XXVII

Governor

THE GOVERNOR, or in his absence the Deputy-Governor or the Lieutenant-Governor, or a Chairman pro-tempore, shall preside at all Courts of the Society, and shall exercise the duties of the presiding officer, under parliamentary rules, subject to an appeal of the Society. He shall be a member ex-officio of all Committees, except Nominating Committees, and the Committee on Membership.

The Governor shall have power to convene the Council at his discretion.

ARTICLE XXVIII

Secretary

THE SECRETARY shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society, and keep a record thereof.

He shall notify all persons elected to membership and shall perform such other duties as the Society or his office may require. He shall have charge of the seal, certificates of incorporation, books, by-laws, historical and other documents and records of the Society, other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar, Treasurer, and such as belong to the supervision and care of the Committee on the Library as provided in Article X. He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership.

He shall certify all acts of the Society and when required, authenticate them under seal.

He shall examine all supplemental ancestral papers submitted by members, and if they shall be found satisfactory in form and supported by proper citation to reliable authority, he shall approve and allow them and admit them to record; provided, no objection shall be made by any of the Council, and in such event, the matter shall be referred to the Council.

He shall have charge of the printing and of publications issued by the Society, except such as may be delegated to special Committees.

He shall give due notice of the time and place of holding all Courts of the Society and of the meetings of the Council.

He shall be ex-officio Secretary of the Council, and he shall keep a full and complete record of all proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Council.

In his absence from any meeting a Secretary pro-tempore may be designated therefor.

The Secretary may be paid a salary at the direction of the Council.

ARTICLE XXIX

Treasurer

THE TREASURER shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society.

The money of the Society shall be deposited in some bank in the city of residence of the Treasurer, to the credit of "The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California," and such money shall be drawn thence on the checks of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only.

He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society.

For the faithful performance of his duties he may be required to give such security as the Council deems proper.

ARTICLE XXX

Historian

THE HISTORIAN shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemorative celebrations of the Society, and shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers and other documents as the Council may see proper to publish.

He shall also prepare a necrological list for the year, with biographies of deceased members, and cause the same to be printed in an appropriate form, by direction of the Council.

ARTICLE XXXI

Registrar

THE REGISTRAR shall receive and file all the proofs upon which membership or supplemental ancestral record has been granted, and record a short abstract thereof.

He shall make a record of all diplomas countersigned by him, and of all documents which the Society may obtain; and, under the direction of the Council, he shall make copies of such papers as the owners may not be willing to have in the keeping of the Society.

In case of any disagreement between the Registrar and Secretary regarding the sufficiency of proofs of eligibility of candidates, or of members in their supplemental papers, the matters at issue shall be referred to the Council, whose action thereon shall be final, unless reversed by the Registrar-General upon appeal.

ARTICLE XXXII

Chancellor

THE CHANCELLOR shall be a lawyer, duly admitted to the bar, and it shall be his duty to give legal opinions on matters affecting the Society when demanded by proper authority.

ARTICLE XXXIII

Surgeon

THE SURGEON shall be a practising physician.

ARTICLE XXXIV

Chaplain

THE CHAPLAIN shall be an ordained minister of a Christian church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

ARTICLE XXXV

Order of Business

THE GENERAL AND SPECIAL COURTS of the Society shall be conducted according to parliamentary law, and the following order of business shall be followed so far as the same may be applicable:

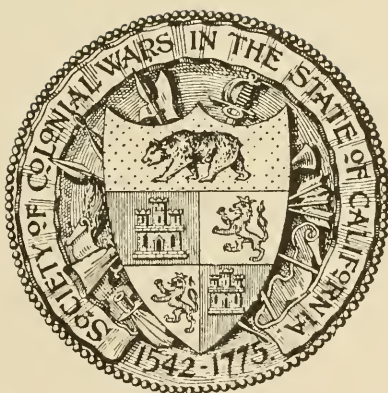

1. Calling the Court to order by the Governor.
2. Reading of the records of prior Courts not acted upon.
3. Reports from Officers, Council and Committees.
4. Unfinished business.
5. New business.
6. Elections.

ARTICLE XXXVI

Amendments

THE PROVISIONS of the Laws of the State of California shall regulate all proceedings to amend these By-Laws.

CONDENSED INFORMATION

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Any male person, above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of California, who is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor:

Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or as a privateersman, under authority of the Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13th, 1607, to the Battle of Lexington, April 19th, 1775; or

Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates mentioned, either as

- a. Director-General, Vice-Director-General, or member of the Council or Legislative body, in the Colony of New Netherland;
- b. Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, Lord Proprietor, Member of the King's or Governor's Council or Legislative body, in the Colonies of New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Delaware;
- c. Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy Governor, or member of the Council or Legislative body, in Maryland and the Carolinas;

d. Governor, Deputy Governor, Governor's Assistant or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, Body of Assistants, Legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

APPLICATIONS

No application for membership will be accepted based upon tradition only, nor unless the statements therein be accompanied by a paged reference to public records or recognized authority, authenticating such service; or when proof depends upon private document, by duly authenticated copies thereof.

Applications must be in duplicate, and endorsed by two members of this Society.

It is a rule of this Society that, candidates residing in the City of Los Angeles and vicinity, must be personally known to a member of the Council before action can be had upon their applications.

The membership fee, first year's dues, and the fees of the General Registrar must accompany the application for membership.
